SAILING INSTRUCTIONS & NOTICE OF RACE
SEASON 2018-2019

1. RULES

All races will be governed by the Australian Sailing (AS) Racing Rules of Sailing, the AS Special Regulations and the Sailing Instructions issued by the Queenscliff Lonsdale Yacht Club Inc (QLYC). Yachts will comply with AS Category 5 (keel boats and trailables), Category 7 (Couta Boats) and the appropriate class rules or as modified by these Sailing Instructions.

All competing vessels must carry a functioning VHF radio.

2. ENTRIES

- a. Eligible yachts should be entered by completing the crew sheet and signing the "sign on sheet", and the payment of the relevant fee per crew member.
- b. All competing yachts will fly the QLYC burgee.
- c. Yachts will declare on the entry form the class and/or club handicap currently applicable to that yacht and shall sail to that handicap which may be modified for the purposes of any race forming part of this programme in the sole and unfettered discretion of the QLYC Race Committee
- d. Yachts shall comply with their respective class rules and shall be disqualified for non-compliance upon protest unless alterations were declared on the entry form.
- e. Where team racing applies, a team shall consist of not less than three yachts subject to the discretion of the QLYC Race Committee with the best three results from yachts in the team to count to the team's placing
- f. QLYC reserves the right to reject any entry.
- g. It is the responsibility of the skipper to ensure that crew members comply with the prescription that any crew member, who sails in more than 3 races in one sailing season, shall be a member of a club affiliated with Australian Sailing and an Australian Sailing Card holder under RRS Part 4, Rule 46.
- h. All those taking part in QLYC races do so at their own risk and responsibility. The QLYC is not responsible for the seaworthiness of a yacht whose entry is accepted or the sufficiency or adequacy of its equipment.

Attention is drawn to Section 1. Fundamental Rules and Definitions:

Fundamental Rule 3. Acceptance of the rules:

By participating in a race conducted under these racing rules, each competitor and yacht owner agrees:

- (a) to be governed by the rules;
- (b) to accept the penalties imposed and other action taken under the rules, subject to the appeal and review procedures provided in them, as the final determination of any matter arising under the rules; and
- (c) with respect to any such determination, not to resort to any court of law or tribunal.

Fundamental Rule 4. Decision to race:

The responsibility for a yacht's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone.

- i. Each yacht must be insured with an appropriate insurer against 3rd party liability with current cover for such liability of not less than $10 million.

3. RACE SCHEDULE

The racing program is posted on the QLYC website (www.qlyc.org.au) and distributed prior to the first race of the year. Copies are available at the race briefing.

4. BRIEFING

Race briefing will be held 1 ½ hours before the scheduled start time for any QLYC race, in the area adjacent to the Queenscliff Harbour Office or as otherwise advised by the Club Captain.

Notices to competitors and any changes to sailing instructions shall be posted on the official notice board at briefing.

Skippers shall sign on and complete a crew declaration sheet prior to, or before leaving the briefing area.

At briefing, any modifications or amendments or details re possible courses will be announced and displayed on the notice board.

The number and composition of divisions will be announced at briefing.

Changes to crew must be made by contacting the start boat by radio on VHF 72.

5. SINGLE HANDED SAILING

Where a yacht is sailed single handed, the skipper must wear a PDF 1 and use a safety harness connected to the vessel at all times.

6. THE START

The start shall be between the committee boat "Swan" or nominated committee boat for the day, positioned on the starboard end of the start line, and a mark of course or buoy positioned at right angles to the true wind (where possible).
