

Winter Race 1. 16th June 2019

For once a winter race report, mainly because a camera was deployed on a benign day. But let it be brief.

Casual briefing over coffee included agreement to start later, at 12 noon to allow tide to slacken a bit before heading back from northerly extremity. The three vessels, all lightly crewed, were Sundance, Boomaroo and Sundance approaching Coles Light.

Tiercel. In the light northerly wind, the course was: QA, Swan Spit (P), Coles Light, West #4, West #3, Coles Light, W#4, W#3, QA, all to Sbd except Swan Spit.

A staggered start, and all away OK but soon Boomaroo suffered a torn jib

Sundance overhauls Tiercel.

With steely determination from skipper JB.

And joy from vice Commodore Frank and had to change to no. 2. Despite this, she overtook Tiercel during the last leg, Sundance by then having overtaken both. Boomaroo and Tiercel both suffered from dying wind in the last few minutes, after Sundance was safely home.

Boomaroo has Tiercel in her sights as wind drops (W#3 in background).

Boomaroo nears the finish.

Over the line and on handicap it was Sundance, Boomaroo and Tiercel.
