

Attempting to come back is of no use and as the editor watches from a safe distance the halyard and spinnaker go to the stern and "Chinon is prawn fishing!!" Nice work and Rosie takes a vantage point behind!
Wet spinnakers are so very slippery!! ... Look closely!!

On the third lap and around Drapers for the last time, Bonta is still showing clean heels to Rosie with Chinon third and catching....Sundance has made the front on the previous leg to Drapers and looks back with interest!

Crew of Sundance observe a broken wooden whisker pole in the water floating away from No.3 on this last leg of the course...Question: Did this come from a Fancy yacht or are we mistaken here??

Nice course and final run down to the flag as Chinon grabs Bonta and gets herself into second place across the line...

The flag falls and Sundance is home first across the line ahead of Chinon and Bonta third followed by Rosie .

A great race and a great result.

Handicapped places show Bonta a good winner with less than a minute to Rosie and Fancy third. Chinon takes 4th followed by Sundance and lastly Drizabone.

Next week: Let's all get out there and see a big weekend of sailing starting with the Commodore's Cup on Saturday with Champagne and drinks at the Club House....on the Commodore!!! Thanks JB!!

P.S. "The Grub" must confess to the minor embarrassment of temporarily losing his crew bag at QCYC (including camera . . . threatening production of the sailing report), but relief was instant when said bag was found 'stowing away' on a RGYC boat, courtesy of over zealous crew!
